

LinguaFolio Training Modules

A project funded by NC DPI
In collaboration with NCSSFL

Module 3

Application Cards

↓Students would probably write these application cards in English.
Novice Low (after learning about greetings)  I can go and introduce myself to the exchange student who just came from Germany.
Novice Mid-High (after learning about family, sports, daily life, etc.)  I can ask my friend from France about his family, either face-to-face or through email.
↓Students would write these application cards in the target language.
Intermediate Low (after watching a video clip of a news broadcast)  Now when I watch the Spanish TV station, I will be able to listen better and be more focused on what is being said.
Intermediate Mid-High (after listening to an audio clip of a news broadcast)  I can compare what I heard in the news report to a report about the same current event in English or from another country where this language is used.
